

Frequently Asked Questions About the New Museum.

Q: Where will the new museum be located?

A: The location sits on a hill just off 31st Street, between Broadway Boulevard and Southwest Trafficway in downtown Kansas City, MO. Our museum will share the same skyline with the iconic Kansas City Scout statue and the historic BMA Tower (One Park Place).

Q: Why are you relocating to downtown?

A: Relocating to downtown Kansas City will make our facility more accessible to auto enthusiasts from all over the city. The central location will also allow the Museum to better attract tourists visiting Kansas City. Our new location is within two miles of Union Station, the World War I Museum and Crown Center, and within three miles of The Country Club Plaza, the Nelson Atkins Museum, and the Power and Light District.

Q: When will it open?

A: Our goal is to break ground in 2026.

Q: What will it look like?

A: Current renderings are located on the website on the Legacy in Motion page. Plans include a 40,000 square foot building, three stories with a rooftop overlooking the most pristine skyline view in Kansas City.

Q: Who are the architects?

A: Pendulum - Kansas City is designing the building.

Q: What kind of exhibits and attractions will be included?

A: Our galleries will be designed to be flexible to encourage repeat visitors. Gallery themes include Kansas City Auto History, and the Inception, Evolution, Customization, Innovation, and Revolution of the Automobile.

Q: What kinds of cars will be displayed?

A: We will have a variety of curated vehicle displays that will rotate regularly. Displays may highlight historical vehicles, exotics, classics, etc. We will maintain an area of the Museum for local car clubs.

Q: Will there be youth programs?

A: Yes, we plan to expand educational programs in our new location as well as preserve our existing programs.

Q: Will you still have Cars & Coffee?

A: Yes! And many other events!

Q: Can my car club hold an event at the new location?

A: Absolutely! More information will follow when the building opens!

Q: Will the new Museum have private event space?

A: Yes, the Museum will feature flexible event spaces with spectacular views of downtown Kansas City!
