

Kansas City Automotive Museum Honors Bobby Schumacher with Donor Plaque Presentation

[Kansas City, MO]—January 19, 2025 – On Saturday, January 18, the Kansas City Automotive Museum proudly presented a donor plaque to Bobby Schumacher at The Underground in recognition of his extraordinary dedication and generosity.

Bobby Schumacher was honored for his significant contribution to The Underground—a stunning, custom-designed gate that serves as the entrance to the museum’s premier car storage facility and collection. This impressive feature has become a signature element of The Underground, wowing visitors and setting the tone for an unforgettable automotive experience.

The plaque presentation was conducted by Tim McCarthy, KCAM Vice President, with attendees including Scott Kem, Property Manager of The Underground; Butch Papon, Curator of Exhibits and Collections; and dedicated members of the KCAM community.

“Bobby’s gift reflects his passion for preserving and showcasing Kansas City’s rich automotive history,” said Tim McCarthy during the ceremony. “His generosity and vision have left a lasting mark on The Underground, enhancing its appeal and solidifying it as a cornerstone of the museum’s mission.”

The event was a heartfelt celebration of the spirit of community and collaboration that fuels the Kansas City Automotive Museum. The plaque will serve as a lasting testament to Bobby’s impact on The Underground and its visitors.
